GROWING AMBITION.

An Editor Who Believes a Senatorship is a Purchasable Commodity.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—M. H. de Young, World's Fair Commissioner from California, said today: "I am not a candidate in the sense of making a fight for the United States Senatorship. The cost of getting elected to the Senate from California is about $300,000. I will not buy the office at that or any other figure. Of course I would not refuse the office. Who would? But I am not, strictly speaking, a candidate."

Senator Ingalls and Jay Gould.

Senator Ingalls was at his best in his recent speech at Pittsburg upon the occasion of the opening of the Pennsylvania campaign. In his reply to the time-worn declaration that with the Republican party in power the rich have been growing richer and the poor poorer, the Senator said in his most satirical and witty vein, after denying the accusation and establishing its falsity:

"Jay Gould and I started in life about the same time. He had a patent mousetrap and I had the sheep skin of a lawyer. He set his trap in Wall street, and came very near taking the earth with it, and I want to say to you with entire confidence go no farther than the only reason why I have not got so much money as Jay Gould has got is because I didn't know how to get it. [Laughter and cheers.] I have examined the Revised Statutes and every statute that has been enacted since my majority was attained and I have failed to discover any legislation that prevented me from acquiring $100,000,000. [Laughter.] It's too late now. [Laughter.] I have sometimes wondered what would come to pass if some great equitable status of justice and equity for redistribution could be enacted so that upon a given date, say the 1st of July following, every citizen of the United States should have his $375 30."

"I have a shrewd suspicion that within six months from that time we would find very much the same condition of things as now. [Laughter.] Some men would be riding in Pullman cars, and some would be walking along by the side of the track [laughter], with their entire earthly possessions in a bandana trunk with a pinlock [laughter] looking for a dry culvert for a bathroom [laughter], and some men would be in Congress and some would be in the penitentiary [laughter], and some would be sitting down in the fence corners waiting to see the procession pass by, and over all loud and clear would be heard the voice of the leather-lunged Democrat demagogue [applause], who gets his living by the perspiration of his jaw [laughter], rather than by the sweat of his brow [laughter], denouncing the wrongs to labor again. [Prolonged cheers.]

The Lottery bill has become a law, having received the President's signature. The lottery company is already casting about for ways to evade its provisions. The provision forbidding the payment of money orders sent to the company or its agent can probably be evaded by having money sent through the express companies. But inasmuch as the laws of the United States forbid any private enterprise for the carrying of the mails, the express companies are likely to get into trouble if they undertake to carry letters and circulars. To send the money by one route and the letter by another route, with the chance, too, of the letters being seized, is likely to prove a somewhat troublesome affair. The provision forbidding the use of the mails to papers advertising the lottery is still more difficult of evasion. The company talks of publishing a paper in Canada, on the supposition that the laws of the Postal Union will insure its reception in the United States mails. But that is far from certain. With all its evasions, however, the law is sure to hamper the operations of the company and to diminish its ill-gotten gains. The citizens of Louisiana ought to finish the job of destruction.

Doesn't Believe the Democratic Platform.

The Salt Lake Tribune says: The death of Governor C. C. Stevenson, of Nevada, takes from that State one of the sterling men who has been a worker there for thirty years. His business was mining. He was a very shrewd and successful miner and capable man. Lieutenant Governor Davis of Nevada died a year ago under the appointing power of the Governor. Governor Stevenson appointed Frank Bell Lieutenant Governor, and now, by virtue of his office, he becomes the Governor of that State. The old race of Nevada men are passing away rapidly. The last five years have made many a gap in the ranks. The State is under a cloud, but that cloud will pass away in a little while. It is the best mineral region out of doors today. It is going to be the best gold and silver-producing State in the Union in the next five years. All it wants is some cheap communications, and they are going to be supplied.

A Large Salary.

The Board of Managers of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company has decided to increase the salary of President and General Manager A. A. McLeod to $40,000. This amount is said to be the largest paid to a railway official in the United States with the exception of Chauncey M. Depew, of the New York Central, who, it is said, gets $50,000.

The following figures are announced at the Census office: Oakland, 48,500; Sacramento, 26,272; Stockton, 14,376.

ACTING GOVERNOR.

The Enterprise says:

There does not seem to be much room for argument in relation to who shall perform the duties of Governor. Lieutenant Governor Davis died, and under Section 1,083 of the statutes, Governor Stevenson appointed Frank Bell to the vacancy. Had there been no statutory provision for filling the vacancy, the Governor would have acted under Section 8 of Article V of the Constitution, which directs him to make such appointments, when no mode is provided by law.

Mr. Bell being Lieutenant Governor, now performs the duties of Governor under Section 18 of the same article, which says: "In case of the death," etc., "the powers and duties shall devolve upon the Lieutenant Governor." There is nothing said about drawing the salary of Governor, and it is probable that financially Mr. Bell is only Lieutenant Governor, but in all other respects he is acting as Governor by authority of the Constitution and laws. If it is a power or duty of a public officer to draw a salary, Mr. Bell will receive the gubernatorial figure, but it is probable that the courts would decide that it is merely a privilege.

Remember the State.

The Enterprise has this:

To those who have made a long study of the water question it is not like an open book. The problem of best and most economical means for using the great Spring floods is one that will always, perhaps, present difficulties, and to those who have given no previous thoughts to irrigation it may be likened at first to a blind puzzle. The separation into districts, adjustment of water rights and the many other details that go to the completion of a system of irrigation, cannot be arranged in a short time. Men who never had a thought beyond their immediate surroundings, who have no knowledge of the State beyond their own immediate locality, though possibly endowed with a capacity to learn, are not now equipped for the task of beginning, even in a small way, the development of Nevada. Such men should not be nominated for the Legislature by either party in any county. Such men may be good, honest men; they may also be capable of learning, but they cannot learn enough in sixty days to be of much use to the State.

The question of consolidation of county offices is not so intricate, but it cannot receive justice at the hands of men who have no knowledge of our system of county government, nor of the relationship existing between people, county and State. Hence men, intelligent in matters to which they have given attention, can acquire sufficient knowledge to be useful, but if they have heretofore paid no attention to public affairs they cannot easily learn enough in sixty days to be very capable legislators upon this subject, if they are trying to learn something else at the same time.

It is to be decided next Winter whether we are to have a Constitutional Convention; if so, when and where; if not, what amendments shall be submitted to the people. The whole topic of constitutional alterations will have to be considered when deciding the most trivial point, and constitution, consolidation and irrigation will always be present for consideration when any measure is brought up.

Now, the good fellows of less than average information, and possibly still less interest in what concerns the State, are not the men to send to do such work. They will do well enough to vote for a Senator, but the able men can do that as well as the mutton-heads. There is but one candidate for United States Senator, and we should not permit that which is just now of less importance to us to interfere with the election of a Legislature that can act well and wisely for Nevada.

Ex-Senator Platt advises young men to go into politics and some of them are doing it. A good many, however, are waiting for the old ones to get out.

The Hay Market.

The hay market is flat. The butchers are only offering $5 per ton, and some of the farmers have sold at that price. But it is too early yet to predict the Fall price or market.

Lend a Hand.

The bereaved family of the late J. A. Logan, who died here Sunday morning, are left in a destitute condition. To-day S. Jacobs and Newt. Bakins will solicit subscriptions for their relief to allow them to return to their friends in Modesto, Cal. Let all lend a hand to help them in their distress.

Which is the fairest, a rose or a lily? Which is the sweetest, a peach or a pear? Mary's question, and charming is Milly: 'Dora is gentle and fair.' (her sweet as a flower was her face when I kneed (Love is the romance and glory of life, Milly, my playmate, I love 'like a sister.' But Dora I choose for my wife.

That's right, young man, marry the girl you love, by all means. If she have you, should her health become delicate and her beauty fade after marriage, remember that this is due to functional weakness, irregularities, or painful disorders peculiar to her sex, the cure of which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded. For 'overworked,' 'worn-out,' 'run-down,' 'debilitated' teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, shop-girls, housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled in its appetizing, cordial and restorative tonic, or strength-giver.

BREVITIES.

The Fair store is closed out.

The town has resumed its normal condition.

Dave Dysart was down from Cuba yesterday.

For window glass, all sizes, go to Lange & Schmitt.

Alvaro Evans returned from the northern country yesterday.

Ask Marcus Fredrick what is the matter with the hot water.

Dr. Mullin will leave Thursday morning for a short trip to St. Louis.

A few Reno people went up yesterday morning to the Carson Fair.

Congress will adjourn to-day. The present Congress has done splendid work.

Hon. Thos. Fitch is reported seriously ill at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

Fred Gould departed for the eastern part of the State on yesterday morning's passenger.

Chas. McFarlin returned yesterday to Smith's Mill out on the N. O. & O., where he is employed.

Miss Amelia Westlake, of Reno, drew the White sewing machine given at the Pavilion Saturday night.

The Carson Fair began yesterday. The weather has not been very propitious, judging from what fell to our lot.

Mrs. Bart Cooper, wife of the Truckee Meadows rancher, returned yesterday from an extended visit to the Bay.

A slight scuffling affray occurred Sunday morning on Commercial Row. This is the only one recorded during the Fair.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for hanging clothes, cook stoves, ranges and house furnishings goods. Largest variety and best values.

Sator Jones expected to leave Washington on Sunday last for Nevada. He will probably be here the last of the week.

W. E. Norwood, a stockbroker, died at San Francisco yesterday. There will be no session of the Board to-day on account of his funeral.

Mr. Chapman, the expressman, had a valuable horse badly injured by being run into while making his last trip Saturday from the Fair.

The Journal made a mistake Sunday morning in stating that J. N. Evans was willing to go to the assembly. News says he has no such desire.

Elsewhere will be found the Democratic State ticket. The ticket is the best one ever nominated by the Nevada Democrats, but in this campaign the Democrats "are not in it."

Owens, of Grayson, Owens & Co., Oakland, who has been here a few days buying a little hay, returned to the Bay yesterday. Mr. Owens says most of his feeding this year will be done in Shasta Valley.

Brad Moore has the thanks of the Journal for a choice lot of his comb and extracted honey, that which took the premium at the State Fair. Brad cannot be beat on honey in all this wide world.

Secretary H. J. Thyes, of the Endowment Fund, Knights of Pythias, Reno, yesterday received a check for $3,000, the amount of insurance due Mrs. Elma A. Garcia, widow of J. R. Garcia, who died at Truckee, August 24th.

John Cahlan, wife and family, who have been visiting friends in Reno and attending the Fair returned yesterday to their home in Susanville. Mr. Cahlan intends placing his oldest son in the State University at this place.

The body of Miss Minnie Daugherty, who died suddenly in Boca on Saturday, the 24th inst., was brought down on yesterday morning's east-bound, and interred here. The funeral service taking place from the Catholic Church.

The Journal acknowledges with thanks the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Lassen Co. Fair, which is to be held at Susanville during the week beginning Oct. 6. The Journal extends its best wishes for its success.

The Fair is over and the tin-horn and the man with the saw have gathered up their effects and betaken themselves to the State capital where they will give the Carsonites a chance to increase in opulence through their ministrations.

Mrs. C. N. Notoware, of Carson, who was so badly injured in a runaway accident at that place on the Sunday before last, died last Saturday night. She was well and favorably known throughout the State and leaves many sorrowing friends.

Yesterday forenoon J. A. Logan, who has been ill for some three weeks of remittent fever, breathed his last. Mr. Logan came here about a year ago from Modesto, Cal., and has been in the employ of S. Jacobs, the tailor, ever since. He leaves a wife and one child.

James C. Doughty, formerly a student at the State University, and at present a fireman on the Wells division of the C. P., has been spending a few days in town on his way back from San Francisco, where he has been attending the convocation of Locomotive Engineers.

Rain.

For some days past the weather has been threatening rain which made its appearance in a copious shower on Sunday evening which fell quite steadily during the night. Yesterday and last evening there was a quiet drizzle which made umbrellas something of a luxury.

Awards Concluded.

The following completes the list of awards made at the State Fair concluded from Sunday's Journal:

A Well Kept Bar.

The officers of the Agricultural Society and the public generally report that they were perfectly satisfied with the manner in which the banquet at the Fair Grounds was conducted by Schroeder & Brown, who paid $1,150 for the privilege. The bar-keepers were courteous and affable, and the quality of the liquors, cigars, etc., passed over the bar equal to any ever known in the history of the Society. Notwithstanding the high price paid for the privilege, Schroeder and Brown made some money out of it, but not any more than they were entitled to for the hard work they did.

Millers.

Swarms of a peculiar kind of miller are appearing in all parts of town. They make their appearance at evening and a dozen or more will be attracted to a lamp even if lit in the house. They dash around it beating against the hot glass until the last one expires. It is supposed that they are a species of miller which appear occasionally with the woolly-aphis which had made its appearance for the first time during the Summer on fruit trees.

The Republican party of Nevada has Nevada interests at heart. It is the party that will build for the benefit of all. The Democratic party of Nevada is the party of fault finding and obstruction; it would destroy the work of many to satisfy the envy of a few. —Enterprise.

HAY.

The Outlook Better Than Generally Supposed.

Several of the Truckee Meadows farmers on the street yesterday were exercised over the prospective price for hay this Fall. While the outlook does not point to any high prices there is every indication that there will be demand for nearly or quite all raised at from $5 to $8 per ton. The indications are that Nevada will be called upon to furnish a large percentage of the hay used in the San Francisco market this year. Clover hay is retailing at the Bay for $12 and $13 per ton, a higher price at this season, than offered for many years. The reason is that good hay in California is a very scarce article, owing to the fact that a large part of the year's crop is spoiled because of the rains in harvest time. There is a prospect of at least five or six thousand head of cattle being fed here, and perhaps more. The farmers need not begin to worry until the storm comes.

Obituary.

On Sunday morning, September 28th, Tessie, daughter of W. H. and Theresa Young departed from this life over the silent river. For three weeks she had been sick with typhoid pneumonia. At times she seemed to rally, but for some hours before her death, she sank slowly into that wakeless slumber in which the boatman pale, carries his precious freight across the tideloss stream which breaks on the shores of eternity. She leaves behind her scores of friends who had known her from childhood, loved her for her virtues and kindness, and who weep for her untimely death, trusting that they may some day find her to welcoming them when they shall have been ferried across to that unknown shore. She leaves behind her father, mother, brother and sisters who are inconsolable in their loss, and who have the sympathies of all in their bereavement. She was 20 years, 8 months and 24 days old, and had lived all her life in Reno.

State University Appropriations.

A private letter received by Isaac Frohman from Senator Stewart states that the aggregate appropriations made to the Nevada State University will this year amount to $30,000, which will be increased hereafter annually by $1,000 until the maximum of $40,000 is reached when that sum will be made a permanent yearly endowment. The amount will be of great advantage to the State University and will materially increase its usefulness, as it will place it on a sound financial basis and allow the Regents and Faculty to carry into effect many plans for the increased efficacy of the institution that have been formulated, but which have lacked the means to be put in execution.

John Wanamaker Notwithstanding.

A Reno stationer received yesterday per express three dozen copies of the Kreutzer Sonata, and, by the way, this is not the first invoice, which speaks well for the high esteem (?) in which realist Tolstoi is held in the riverside town. A lady gazing absently at a copy through the showcase window was heard mournfully to utter, "Oh, why is the Kreutzer Sonata?" We would like to answer that question, but can't. We don't know. Who does?

Lander Democrats.

The Lander county Democratic Convention made the following nominations: State Senator, Robert McElb; Assemblymen, G. S. Moore, J. P. Slavan, W. Carsley; Sheriff, A. McCafferty; Clerk, J. A. Miller; Treasurer, George Dyer; Recorder, M. D. Murphy; District Attorney, James Egan; Commissioner (long term), George Waki; Commissioner (short term), I. P. Weaver.

Creamery?

The Sierra Valley Leader says: Reno people are trying to have a creamery. One can be bought in this valley we believe. The creamery owned by Wittise & Street is not being used at present. Reno people will do better to invest in a cheese factory.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-ly

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. 21; six for $1. Prepared only by C. I. HORRORS IN PANAMA

Shocking Things Done by the Government in Panama.

A letter from Panama, giving details of the adventures of Dr. Bayol, the governor of Kotonou, who was imprisoned by the king of Dahomey, appears in the Volksrecht Zeitung. Dr. Bayol himself was not ill treated, but was forced to witness the most horrible executions, and was closely watched night and day by three of the most important chiefs. He was forced to be present at the execution of his secretary and his interpreter, and was a spectator of the sacrifice at one time of eighty-four human beings, and at another of forty-two. The victims were bound, mutilated in a horrible manner, and then still alive, hung up by the heels. Then their bodies were opened with large round knives and the intestines taken out, after which the corpses were thrown into a "place of skulls," where in forty-eight hours they were reduced to a mass of bones and skeletons.

Dr. Bayol was every time compelled to view each corpse, while the executions carefully turned the heads of their victims toward him. Upon one occasion he desired to buy off some negro, whom he recognized as a prisoner from Porto Novo, but the king angrily refused to allow it. Every day his daily majesty danced before the doctor, executing steps and jumps which would have been highly entertaining under other circumstances. At these times the king wore a saddle and a sword of Gedeon cap on his head, and six Amazons danced with him.

The Amazons, Dr. Bayol describes as very handsome. One day the doctor witnessed a spectacle which he will never forget. At a sign from the king 500 Amazons rushed upon a living ox and tore it into pieces in a few seconds; then each, with a piece of raw flesh in her mouth, marched off singing, while five of their number held the skin and head of their victim aloft in triumph.

In fetal garments they witnessed from the roofs of the neighboring huts the human sacrifices of the next day and laughed heartily. They always appear perfectly resigned and go quietly to death when their turn comes. The king is very suspicious, and would not sign the letter written to the president of the French republic. Dr. Bayol's return to the coast was extremely dangerous, for he had no passport and was therefore obliged, in spite of illness, to march more than fifty miles in one day through country with which he was quite unacquainted. On arriving at Kotonou he heard of the death of the king, whom he had been still at Dahomey, he would have probably been accused of poisoning.

Wicked Trick on a Trout Fisher.

J. H. Blithen and Alfred Stetson, of Lincoln, went on a trout fishing expedition and captured eleven fish. They placed them in their wagon and then went off to look after some bear traps. While they were gone Dr. Boyd happened along, and recognizing the boat proceeded to parol the trout. He took them to Mr. Blithen's home, told Mrs. Blithen how he came by them, and requested her to say nothing, but to cook them the next day and surprise her husband; meantime she would probably hear a pretty good fish story, he predicted. When Mr. Blithen arrived home his story, in reply to his wife's inquiries as to his luck, was fully up to the expectation of the plotters. He said they had caught forty-eight trout, and most of them were of monstrous size, in fact the finest string he ever saw, but some evil minded person had stolen them from the team while they were absent, and so on. When his wife produced eleven fried little fishes for dinner the next day and told him that there were his forty-eight monsters the fisherman wilted like a morning glory in a noonday sun.—Honolulu (Mo.) Pioneer.

Senior Keeps on Writing.

My mother often went to Bowwood, and used to tell a good story against our old friend, Mr. Nassau Senior. Once when she was there with the Seniors and a large party Tommy Moore, who lived near and was a frequent visitor, was prevailed upon to sing. All prepared to listen to the charming performance save Mr. Senior, who sat down at a small writing table and began to write with a quill upon Lord Lansdowne's very ribbed paper. He was compiling a paper on statistics, or something of that sort. Moore began, but his singing was rendered impossible by the persistent scratch, scratch, and he turned round to see who caused the odious noise. Mr. Senior looked up and said innocently, "Oh, you don't disturb me, I assure you; pray go on, I rather like it." This caused an outbreak of laughter absolutely puzzling to the unconscious statistician.—Mrs. Rose in Murray's Magazine.

The Land of Ducks.

There are more ducks in the Chinese empire than in all the world outside of it. They are kept by the Celestials on every farm, on the private roads, on the public roads, on the streets of cities and on all the lakes, ponds, rivers, streams and brooks in the country. Every Chinese boat also contains a batch of them. There are innumerable hatching establishments all through the empire, many of which are said to turn out about fifty thousand young ducks every year. Salted and smoked duck and ducks' eggs constitute two of the most common and important articles of diet in China.—Exchange.

Critical Periods in Life.

There are two periods in life in which the powers of resistance to adverse influences are excessively weak. In infancy, from birth to 5 years of age, but especially in the first year of existence, the power of life is very feeble, and this is the reason that so many infants die suddenly in convulsions. Again, after the age of 35 is passed the vital tenacity is lowered, the substance of the heart and of the muscles in general becomes fatty, and there is imminent liability to sudden failure of the heart's action.—Chas. J. Fox.

INSURANCE.

THE

MANHATTAN

Insurance Company.

Assets, $12,000,000.

The history of the past has proven beyond a question that an endowment policy in a life insurance company is a much

BETTER INVESTMENT

Than a savings bank; FIRST, because it is very much safer—as the law of the State of New York requires every life insurance company to keep a

Reserve in First-Class Securities

Equal to its liabilities, dollar for dollar; SECOND, in case of death while making these small deposits, the life insurance company will pay, just when most needed by the family, the

Full Amount

Of the sum insured, amounting to 10, 20, or even 30 times as much as has been deposited; or on the

Return Premium

Plan of the MANHATTAN, they would do even more than this, for they would at death pay the face of the policy and in addition all the deposits (premiums) paid, while the savings bank would only return the amounts actually deposited with interest.

Who would not purchase a valuable piece of property—a farm for example—worth $10,000, if he could have twenty years to pay for it, in small sums of $500 per annum with interest on deferred payments and without any tax on it? The $500 per annum being only 3 per cent of the $10,000—a sum not much greater than that paid annually for taxes on property in hand, of the same cost, and especially if he could have the further conditions specially stated in the contract, let that if he dies while making these payments—even after one only has been made—

No Further Payments Shall be Required

And the full title in fee simple to the entire farm shall at once be given to his family; and 3d, that if at any time after the three years during the twenty years he shall be unable to continue the payments and from sickness or any misfortune, that then he could discontinue any further payments and have in fee simple such portions of the farm as he has paid for; thus, if one-fourth of the payments had been made, he would own one separate fourth of the farm, etc., and at the same time the farm be entirely free from all claims of creditors, under all circumstances, not even to be reached by writ of execution or attachment issued by any court, while if living to the end of the twenty years and the annual payments have been made, the

Entire Property in Fee Simple

Is secured.

Now the MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY offers all this and more, for instead of offering LAND on these terms, which is often eaten up by legal expenses and fees in case of the death of the purchaser, or swallowed up by a mortgage given to secure deferred payments, thus losing the whole amount paid in and leaving the family destitute, or dependent, it offers a Specific Bond Secured by Millions of First-Class Securities.

Agreeing to pay MONEY on the same terms and conditions as above—the cost per year varying at different ages, but otherwise substantially the same terms as above stated, while the sum to be paid at the end of twenty years will be increased by dividends and compounded interest for the full term, thus making the investment a very PROFITABLE and ADVANTAGEOUS one.

Inquiries concerning the bonds of this company will receive prompt reply if addressed to

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Republican State Convention held at Virginia City, Nevada, September 4, 1890.

The record of the Republican party is its best platform.

No political party in human history has taken such advanced positions for the equality of races, none has so wedded the administration of authority to the needs of business, none has so managed the affairs of a State and encouraged the development of a continent, none has so elevated a nation and so contributed to the happiness of man, none has so honestly and economically carried on the routine of government.

In all things it has been the direct opposite of the Democratic party. Grand in its ambitions and impulses, firm and resolute in its consistency, strong in its devotion to duty, it is now, as it has been from birth, the representative of all that is noblest and best in its own country and hope and promise of a better future for the human race.

Its battles for human rights, its preservation of the Union, its abolition of slavery, its protection to labor, its elevation of manhood, its upholding of the National credit, its efforts in behalf of honest financial methods, its homestead system, and its devotion to popular education have made for it the greatest record of any political organization this or any other country ever had.

The names of its heroes are legion, and the deeds of Fremont, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield will shine like electric lights on the pages of history.

The Republican party, in its convention assembled, heartily indorse the acts of the Fifty-first Congress, which has made greater advances in correct and needed legislation than any since the war.

It is a question that will lead naturally to free coinage and disarm all opposition among financiers.

It has taken up the work of a readjustment of the tariff in a patriotic and business like way, such as will protect the interests of labor and at the same time encourage capital to enterprises that will furnish it with employment at good wages.

New States which were denied their rights before have been admitted to the Union, and the grip of Tammany Hall upon the Presidency broken.

Treaties that grew rank under Cleveland's Administration have been broken up and made to obey the laws of honest commerce.

Efforts are being made to prevent or punish frauds and intimidations in elections.

A navy has been provided for and suitable pensions granted to prevent suffering among the sick and wounded heroes of the war.

Provision is being made for the reclamation of the arid regions where the Republican policy of free homes and free schools can be extended.

Unearned land grants are being restored to the public domain and the land thrown open to settlers, and in all things the pledges of the National platform are being amply redeemed.

We indorse the Administration of President Harrison and commend his conservative course as sitting in contrast with his predecessor in office.

During the former Administration silver and wheat touched the lowest price ever known, and diminished, financial straits prevailed, the mail service was demoralized and business found itself oppressed instead of being encouraged by the methods of the Government.

Wholesale business should be to benefit the country, to-day silver, wheat and all the products of labor are rapidly rising, and while the Democratic officials may perhaps be innocent of intentionally destroying our property they are culpable for the results of blunders as they would be for crimes.

Under the Republican Administration and contract labor are kept out of the country, American laborers and mechanics protected, and all are encouraged by a dignified and intelligently conducted for its benefit, and the laws administered in a wise, firm and patriotic manner.

In presenting its ticket, the Republican party pledges its nominees to retrenchment wherever it is possible in county and State expenditures.

We pledge our nominees to a system of State improvements which shall save the water now running to waste and devise means to secure its use in the irrigation of fertile lands now lying idle.

We propose to create a system of State improvements for the purpose of aiding to improve our water storage and irrigating systems, and we appeal to Congress and the President to grant this much needed aid.

We indorse the course of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and commend their efforts to establish on a better basis, the use of silver as money, and to obtain an uncompromising demand for the free coinage of both gold and silver and their equal station in our National currency.

Resolved, That the practice of letting mail contracts in this State to non residents thereof, who seek and obtain such contracts only for the purpose of subverting the same as has resulted in an inferior and impeded mail service.

Resolved, That our delegation in Congress be requested to procure, if possible, the enactment of a law to prevent such abuses in the future.

We are in favor of the improvement of the wages of American labor by restricting immigration from foreign countries, a thorough revision of our naturalization and land laws, the construction of naval and coast defenses, the fostering of free schools and popular education, the enforcement of a free ballot and a fair count, the protection of the defenders of our country, the protection of every citizen at home and abroad, the fostering of a policy that will extend our commerce, the settling of all foreign complications by arbitration, and the liberal appropriation by Congress of the construction of water reservoirs and a system of irrigation.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Australian system of ballot.

Resolved, That as the coming election the questions to be submitted to the people, that we earnestly invite calm and thorough discussion of the question during the campaign.

Resolved, That it is the policy of the Republican party of Nevada to secure all safe and possible retrenchments in public affairs, and especially in dispensing with unnecessary offices and useless deputies in adjusting salaries upon a basis of facts performed, decreasing the per diem and mileage and shortening the session and reducing the number of members of the Legislature, in the reduction of taxation and in consolidating county offices and diminishing county expenses, and to this end we pledge the nominees of the convention and earnestly ask that the nominees of the several county conventions be likewise obliged.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Australian system of ballot.

Resolved, That as the coming election the questions to be submitted to the people, that we earnestly invite calm and thorough discussion of the question during the campaign.

Resolved, That it is the policy of the Republican party of Nevada to secure all safe and possible retrenchments in public affairs, and especially in dispensing with unnecessary offices and useless deputies in adjusting salaries upon a basis of facts performed, decreasing the per diem and mileage
